NOTES

Cutty Sark is:

- o The name of a range of blended Scotch whiskies, owned by Berry Brothers & Rudd, the London wine and spirits merchant. The whisky was created on March 20, 1923, with the home of the blend considered to be at Glenrothes distillery, in the Speyside region of Scotland. The name comes from the River Clyde-built clipper ship Cutty Sark, whose name came from the Scots language term cutty-sark. The Tall Ships' Races for large sailing ships were originally known as The Cutty Sark Tall Ships' Races, under the terms of sponsorship by the whisky brand. See http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cutty\_Sark (whisky)
- o A clipper ship. Built in 1869, she served as a merchant vessel (the last clipper to be built for that purpose), and then as a training ship until being put on public display in 1954. She is preserved in dry dock in Greenwich, London. However, the ship was badly damaged in a fire on 21 May 2007 while undergoing extensive restoration. The ship will be reopened in Summer 2010. The Cutty Sark is the only remaining original clipper ship from the nineteenth century. See http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cutty\_Sark
- o A short shirt or blouse
